

Good Shepherd Parish Newsletter

Happy are the poor in spirit.

In Good Shepherd Parish, our vision for our Children & Families Ministry is Our Children and Families ministry ensures the families and children in the parish are prioritised by supporting families to place God at the centre of their life through sacraments, prayer and education.

This weekend we continue the consultation process as the parish works towards the creation of a strategic plan. This first step in this process is to dream as a parish about what could be possible in each of the ministry areas we are seeking to build up.

This weekend we listen to Chantale Wilson (Director of Children and Families at Archdiocesan Ministries) dream about what a Children & Families ministry could look like in a parish. Please watch the video by following this link: tinyurl.com/visionforcandf or use the QR code below.

Do you have a dream for Children and Families ministry? If yes, we want to hear from you! To complete a quick 2-minute survey, follow this link: tinyurl.com/GSChildrenandfamilies or use the QR code below.

Readings at Mass

4th Sunday in Ordinary Time
1st February 2026

First Reading

Zephaniah 2: 3, 12-13

Seek the Lord,
all you, the humble of the earth,
who obey his commands.
Seek integrity,
seek humility:
you may perhaps find shelter
on the day of the anger of the Lord.

In your midst I will leave
a humble and lowly people,
and those who are left in Israel will seek refuge in the name of the Lord.
They will do no wrong,
will tell no lies;
and the perjured tongue will no longer
be found in their mouths.
But they will be able to graze and rest
with no one to disturb them.

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 26(27):1, 4, 13-14

R/ The Lord is my light and my salvation.

It is the Lord who keeps faith for ever,
who is just to those who are oppressed.
It is he who gives bread to the hungry,
the Lord, who sets prisoners free. R/

It is the Lord who gives sight to the blind,
who raises up those who are bowed down,
the Lord, who protects the stranger
and upholds the widow and orphan. R/

It is the Lord who loves the just but thwarts the path of the wicked.
The Lord will reign for ever,
Zion's God, from age to age. R/

Second Reading

1 Corinthians 1:10-13, 17

Take yourselves for instance, brothers, at the time when you were called: how many of you were wise in the ordinary sense of the word, how many were influential people, or came from noble families? No, it was to shame the wise that God chose what is foolish
by human reckoning, and to shame what is strong
that he chose what is weak by human reckoning;
those whom the world thinks common and contemptible are the ones that God has chosen – those who are nothing at all to show up those who are everything. The human race has nothing to boast about to God, but you, God has made members of Christ Jesus and by God's doing he has become our wisdom, and our virtue, and our holiness, and our freedom. As scripture says: if anyone wants to boast, let him boast about the Lord.

Gospel Acclamation

Matthew 5:12

Alleluia, alleluia!
Rejoice and be glad;
your reward will be great in heaven.
Alleluia!

Gospel

Matthew 5:1-12a

Seeing the crowds, Jesus went up the hill. There he sat down and was joined by his disciples. Then he began to speak. This is what he taught them:

'How happy are the poor in spirit;
theirs is the kingdom of heaven.
Happy the gentle:
they shall have the earth for their heritage.
Happy those who mourn:
they shall be comforted.
Happy those who hunger and thirst for what is right:
they shall be satisfied.
Happy the merciful:
they shall have mercy shown them.
Happy the pure in heart:
they shall see God.
Happy the peacemakers:
they shall be called sons of God.
Happy those who are persecuted in the cause of right:
theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

'Happy are you when people abuse you and persecute you and speak all kinds of calumny against you on my account. Rejoice and be glad, for your reward will be great in heaven.'

Next Sunday Readings:

Is 58: 7-10, Ps 111 (112): 4-9

PROJECT
COMPASSION

Lent is just a round the corner! Why not sign up to Host a Lent Event? Your community could come together for a trivia night or Sunday meal, uniting for a day of fun and connection while making a difference to those living in poverty. Or you could sign your parish up to take part in The Long Walk for Water, walking in solidarity with communities who travel long distances each day just to access water. However you get involved, it's an opportunity to put our faith into action, foster community, and experience the power of service.

Thank you working bees!

Thank you to our dedicated volunteers who worked alongside Sr Salvacion at last Saturday's working bee, refurbishing chairs, cleaning kitchen cupboards, and helping with general cleaning. Your time and support are greatly appreciated.
