The ASCENSION of the LORD
1st June 2025

While blessing them, he was taken to heaven.

If you were with us last week, you would have heard about the new priest joining our Parish, Fr Francisco Evangelista. Soon enough, we will hear his story when the time is right. Until then, let me explain what this means for Amalgamation and moving forward.

One of the tasks under the banner of Amalgamation was the changing of Mass Times. With the inclusion of Fr Francisco, there's no urgency to move ahead with the changes. We are afforded an opportunity to sit with the question a little longer, but that conversation will unfold in time.

I want to briefly draw our attention today to the second reading from the letter to the Hebrews because it forms what we understand about the Eucharist. The Institution Narrative, which is the story of Jesus Last Supper, begins our Eucharistic prayer. It starts off with 'for on the night he was betrayed...' and then we go into the narrative. After which, we call to mind the sacrifice of the cross. As these words are prayed by the priest, the moment of Jesus on the cross, where blood was poured out for us, is made present. The word we use here is 'Re-Presented' which is to say: presented again.

Now there's a slight nuance here because Jesus is not dying again on the cross for us, but the one death on the cross that Jesus suffered all those years ago, is presented to us as we celebrate the Eucharist. The sacrifice of the cross was such a profound moment in history that it resounds in the worship and celebration of every Mass - 'by his wounds we are healed (Isa 53:5).'

God who is outside of space and time, who dwells in another dimension to us, makes this presentation possible through the power of the Holy Spirit. This is the true nature and power of Jesus' death on the cross. If we truly understood the sacrifice that Christ suffered for us, a world of spirituality and appreciation would open to us.

It is for this reason I present to you these spiritual realities at work within the Mass. It might go by quickly depending on the Celebrant, but I urge you friends, to dive deeply into the mystery of the celebration and call to account your focus especially during this time of the Mass.

It makes sense that you would feel tired after the Mass because it requires full and active participation as the Church instructs of us in Sacrosanctum Concilium.

May this Mass be a time of renewal and restoration for you, through the sacrifice of Jesus on the Cross poured out for us on the Table of the Altar.

Fr William

Readings at Mass

First Reading

In my earlier work, Theophilus, I dealt with everything Jesus had done and taught from the beginning until the day he gave his instructions to the apostles he had chosen through the Holy Spirit, and was taken up to heaven. He had shown himself alive to them after his Passion by many demonstrations: for forty days he had continued to appear to them and tell them about the kingdom of God. When he had been at table with them, he had told them not to leave Jerusalem, but to wait there for what the Father had promised. 'It is' he had said 'what you have heard me speak about: John baptised with water but you, not many days from now, will be baptised with the Holy Spirit.'

Now having met together, they asked him, 'Lord, has the time come? Are you going to restore the kingdom to Israel?' He replied, 'It is not for you to know times or dates that the Father has decided by his own authority, but you will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes on you, and then you will be my witnesses not only in Jerusalem but throughout Judaea and Samaria, and indeed to the ends of the earth.'

As he said this he was lifted up while they looked on, and a cloud took him from their sight. They were still staring into the sky when suddenly two men in white were standing near them and they said, 'Why are you men from Galilee standing here looking into the sky? Jesus who has been taken up from you into heaven, this same Jesus will come back in the same way as you have seen him go there.'

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 46(47):2-3, 6-9

R/ God mounts his throne to shouts of joy:
a blare of trumpets for the Lord.

All peoples, clap your hands,
cry to God with shouts of joy!
For the Lord, the Most High, we must fear,
great king over all the earth. R/

God goes up with shouts of joy;
the Lord goes up with trumpet blast.
Sing praise for God, sing praise,
sing praise to our king, sing praise. R/

God is king of all the earth
sing praise with all your skill
God is king over the nations;
God reigns on his holy throne. R/

Second Reading Hebrews 9:24-28,10:19-23
It is not as though Christ had entered a man-made sanctuary which was only modelled on the real one; but it was heaven itself, so that he could appear in the actual presence of God on our behalf. And he does not have to offer himself again and again, like the high priest going into the sanctuary year after year with the blood that is not his own, or else he would have had to suffer over and over again since the world began. Instead of that, he has made his appearance once and for all, now at the end of the last age, to do away with sin by sacrificing himself.

Acts 1:1-11

Since men only die once, and after that comes judgement, so Christ, too, offers himself only once to take the faults of many on himself, and when he appears a second time, it will not be to deal with sin but to reward with salvation those who are waiting for him.

In other words, brothers, through the blood of Jesus we have the right to enter the sanctuary, by a new way which he has opened for us, a living opening through the curtain, that is to say, his body. And we have the supreme high priest over all the house of God. So as we go in, let us be sincere in heart and filled with faith, our minds sprinkled and free from any trace of bad conscience and our bodies washed with pure water. Let us keep firm in the hope we profess, because the one who made the promise is faithful.

Gospel Acclamation

Mt 28:19, 20

Alleluia, alleluia!
Go, make disciples of all the nations.
I am with you always; yes, to the end of time.
Alleluia!

Gospel

Luke 24:46-53

Jesus said to his disciples:

'You see how it is written that the Christ would suffer and on the third day rise from the dead, and that, in his name, repentance for the forgiveness of sins would be preached to all the nations, beginning from Jerusalem. You are witnesses to this.'

'And now I am sending down to you what the Father has promised. Stay in the city then, until you are clothed with the power from on high.'

Then he took them out as far as the outskirts of Bethany, and lifting up his hands he blessed them. Now as he blessed them, he withdrew from them and was carried up to heaven. They worshipped him and then went back to Jerusalem full of joy; and they were continually in the Temple praising God.
