ALL SAINTS 1 November 2020 - Year A

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

The feast of all the saints is celebrated on this Sunday and All Soul's Day on this Monday 1st of November. The Commemoration of All the Saints in the church began since Pope Gregory IV ordered its church-wide observance in the year 837. All Saints' Day has been observed by the Church as an occasion to celebrate in a special way all its saints, past and present, whatever their country of origin, their race, or their denomination, and whether they are known to us personally or not. On this day we remember the saints, who may have been forgotten, or never been specifically honoured.

We have saints in the church because they are the holy persons whose examples we aim to follow, their life we imitate and at the same time ask for their prayers and intercessions to grow in the perfection of faith in God. The whole concept of All Saints Day is tied in with the concept of the Communion of Saints. This is the belief that all of God's people, on heaven, earth, and in the state of purification, are connected in a communion. We celebrate the lives of ordinary men and women of every time and place who lived in an extraordinary way in faithfulness to the message of the gospel and for Jesus Christ. In the history of the Church there have been countless others who really are saints, and who are with God in heaven. Their names are not on the list of canonized saints in the church. They are especially remembered today on this feast day. So in this great day let us ask the intercession and blessings of all the saints for our lives and family.

God bless you

Readings at Mass

Entrance Antiphon

Let us all rejoice in the Lord, as we celebrate the feast day in honour of all the Saints, at whose festival the Angels rejoice and praise the Son of God.

First reading Apocalypse 7:2-4,9-14

I, John, saw another angel rising where the sun rises, carrying the seal of the living God; he called in a powerful voice to the four angels whose duty was to devastate land and sea, 'Wait before you do any damage on land or at sea or to the trees, until we have put the seal on the foreheads of the servants of our God.' Then I heard how many were sealed: a hundred and forty-four thousand, out of all the tribes of Israel. After that I saw a huge number, impossible to count, of people from every nation, race, tribe and language; they were standing in front of the throne and in front of the Lamb, dressed in white robes and holding palms in their hands. They shouted aloud, 'Victory to our God, who sits on the throne, and to the Lamb!' And all the angels who were standing in a circle round the throne, surrounding the elders and the four animals, prostrated themselves before the throne, and touched the ground with their foreheads, worshipping God with these words, 'Amen. Praise and glory and wisdom and thanksgiving and honour and power and strength to our God for ever and ever. Amen.'

One of the elders then spoke, and asked me, 'Do you know who these people are, dressed in white robes, and where they have come from?' I answered him, 'You can tell me, my lord.' Then he said, 'These are the people who have been through the great persecution, and they have washed their robes white again in the blood of the Lamb.'

Responsorial Psalm Psalm 23:1-6

Lord, this is the people that longs to see your face.

The Lord's is the earth and its fullness,
the world and all its peoples.
It is he who set it on the seas;
on the waters he made it firm. R/
Who shall climb the mountain of the Lord?
Who shall stand in his holy place?
The man with clean hands and pure heart,
who desires not worthless things. R/
He shall receive blessings from the Lord and reward from the God who saves him.
Such are the men who seek him,
seek the face of the God of Jacob. R/

Second reading 1 John 3:1-3

Think of the love that the Father has lavished on us, by letting us be called God's children; and that is what we are. Because the world refused to acknowledge him, therefore it does not acknowledge us. My dear people, we are already the children of God but what we are to be in the future has not yet been revealed; all we know is, that when it is revealed we shall be like him because we shall see him as he really is. Surely everyone who entertains this hope must purify himself, must try to be as pure as Christ.

Gospel Acclamation Mt11:28

Alleluia, alleluia!
Come to me, all you that labour and are burdened,
and I will give you rest, says the Lord.
Alleluia!

Gospel Matthew 5:1-12

Rejoice and be glad, for your reward will be great in heaven. Seeing the crowds, Jesus went up the hill. There he sat down and was joined by his disciples. Then he began to speak. This is what he taught them: 'How happy are the poor in spirit; theirs is the kingdom of heaven. Happy the gentle: they shall have the earth for their heritage. Happy those who mourn: they shall be comforted. Happy those who hunger and thirst for what is right: they shall be satisfied. Happy the merciful: they shall have mercy shown them.

Happy the pure in heart: they shall see God. Happy the peacemakers: they shall be called sons of God.

Happy those who are persecuted in the cause of right: theirs is the kingdom of heaven. 'Happy are you when people abuse you and persecute you and speak all kinds of calumny against you on my account. Rejoice and be glad, for your reward will be great in heaven.'

Communion Antiphon Mt 5: 8-10

Blessed are the clean of heart, for they shall see God. Blessed are the peacemakers, for they shall be called children of God. Blessed are they who are persecuted for the sake of righteousness, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Next Sunday's readings: 1st reading: Wis 6:12-16;
2nd reading: 1 Thess 4: 13-18; Gospel: Mt 25: 1-13

Pastoral Care Update

Dear Parishioners,

On this Solemnity of All Saints we celebrate the lives of the great multitude of Saints, who now stand before the face of God ready to help us by their prayers. Those men and women whose goodness and devotion to God have inspired the world. Throughout history the saints have allowed God's love to shine out through them, and their lives are examples for us to aspire and follow.

Last Monday and Wednesday during my visitation and meal deliveries there were 3 elderly waiting. As I hopped out of my car they were watching me so I said: "Hello ladies and gentlemen, how have you been?" As I joined in their conversation the gentleman started to share "Life is hard but God provides, life is unpredictable but God guides, sometimes life is unfair but God cares, life is always a challenge but God sustains." Then the 1st lady commented "Oh yes, my dear without rain nothing grows. We must learn how to embrace all the storms of life."... As we watched the rain heavily pouring down she continued; "just as the strong rain flushes all the dirt so in our life too—let the stress go and let the blessings flow." Then the 2nd lady added "There is no storm that God won't carry you through. No bridge that God won't help you cross, No battle that God won't help you win, No heartache that God won't help you let go of. He is so much bigger than anything you will ever face. Leave everything in His hands. Embrace each day confidently knowing that he will take care of you." and she turned to me and said "Thanks to you and your team of volunteers for sharing God's love and blessings flow to us." Indeed it was a very enriching experience to listen to their words of wisdom and inspiration.

During this week, let us remind ourselves that we are all called by God to be saints and to let His love shine out through our lives to fill the world with the light of His love.
God Bless and have a great week to you all.
Sr. Salvacion, sfi

Weekly Reflection Communion of the Church of Heaven and Earth

The Intercession of the saints "being more closely united to Christ, those who swell in heaven fix the whole Church more firmly in holiness... They do not cease to intercede with the Father for us, as they proffer the merits which they acquired on earth through the one mediator between God and men, Christ Jesus:.. So by their fraternal concern is our weakness greatly helped. Communion with the dead. In full consciousness of this communion of the whole Mystical Body of Jesus Christ, the Church in its pilgrim members, from the very earliest days of the Christian religion, has honoured with great respect the memory of the dead; and because it is a holy and a wholesome thought to pray for the dead that they may be loosed from their sins' she offers her suffrages for them. Our prayer for them is capable not only of helping them, but also of making their intercession for us effective.
