5th SUNDAY in ORDINARY TIME
 4 February 2024 - Year B

Hello everyone,

My name is William Aupito Iuliano (OW-PEE-TOH/YOU-LEE-ARNO). I'm so happy to meet you. I was born in New Zealand, Auckland and moved to Victoria when I was three years old. After high school in the South East Suburbs of Melbourne, I left Vitoria to join NET (National Evangelisation Teams) Ministries who operate out of Brisbane. I completed my first year of NET on the Tablelands in Herberton and then completed my second year of NET in Innisfail.

After a period of discernment at Canali House in 2014, I entered Holy Spirit Seminary for the Diocese of Brisbane in 2015. The seminary was a meaningful time of formation where I learnt a lot about myself and what it means to be a priest for Christ and for the Church.

I was later ordained a Deacon in 2020 and began my ministry in Gympie. The following year in 2021, just before a snap-lockdown in Brisbane, I was ordained with three other men. Our ordination was due to begin at 6pm but it was then moved to 3pm so that everyone could get away in time.

My time in Gympie was short, but I came to really appreciate the ministry of a priest in that period, especially the relationships priests form along the way.

In 2022 I was asked to move to Maroochydore which was a surprise for me at the time, but a sign to me that my life was not my own. I spent a year and six months in Maroochydore enjoying the Sunshine Coast and beach/city-life atmosphere. I thought I was going to be there for three years, but it turns out there were other plans in the mix.

I'm now here and I'm looking forward to how God will work in all of us to bring about new life in our Church. So, let's journey together and discover the plans God has in store for us.

Peace and Blessing,
 Fr William

First reading: Job 7:1-4,6-7

Job began to speak:

Is not man's life on earth nothing more than pressed service,
his time no better than hired drudgery?
Like the slave, sighing for the shade,
or the workman with no thought but his wages,
months of delusion I have assigned to me,
nothing for my own but nights of grief.
Lying in bed I wonder, 'When will it be day?'
Risen I think, 'How slowly evening comes!'
Restlessly I fret till twilight falls.
Swifter than a weaver's shuttle my days have passed,
and vanished, leaving no hope behind.
Remember that my life is but a breath,
and that my eyes will never again see joy.

Responsorial Psalm: Psalm 146(147):1-6

R: Praise the Lord, who heals the broken-hearted.

Praise the Lord for he is good;
sing to our God for he is loving;
to him our praise is due. R/

The Lord builds up Jerusalem and brings back Israel's exiles,
he heals the broken-hearted,
he binds up all their wounds.
He fixes the number of the stars;
he calls each one by its name. R/

Our Lord is great and almighty;
his wisdom can never be measured.
The Lord raises the lowly;
he humbles the wicked to the dust. R/

Second reading: 1 Corinthians 9:16-19,22-23

I do not boast of preaching the gospel, since it is a duty which has been laid on me; I should be punished if I did not preach it! If I had chosen this work myself, I might have been paid for it, but as I have not, it is a responsibility which has been put into my hands. Do you know what my reward is? It is this: in my preaching, to be able to offer the Good News free, and not insist on the rights which the gospel gives me.

So though I am not a slave of any man I have made myself the slave of everyone so as to win as many as I could. For the weak I made myself weak: I made myself all things to all men in order to save some at any cost; and I still do this, for the sake of the gospel, to have a share in its blessings.

Gospel Acclamation: Matthew 8:17

Alleluia, alleluia!
He bore our sickness,
and endured our suffering.
Alleluia!

Gospel: Mark 1:29-39

On leaving the synagogue, Jesus went with James and John straight to the house of Simon and Andrew. Now Simon's mother-in-law had gone to bed with fever, and they told him about her straightaway. He went to her, took her by the hand and helped her up. And the fever left her and she began to wait on them.

That evening, after sunset, they brought to him all who were sick and those who were possessed by devils. The whole town came crowding round the door, and he cured many who were suffering from diseases of one kind or another; he also cast out many devils, but he would not allow them to speak, because they knew who he was.

In the morning, long before dawn, he got up and left the house, and went off to a lonely place and prayed there. Simon and his companions set out in search of him, and when they found him they said, 'Everybody is looking for you.' He answered, 'Let us go elsewhere, to the neighbouring country towns, so that I can preach there too, because that is why I came.' And he went all through Galilee, preaching in their synagogues and casting out devils.

Communion Antiphon:
Cf. Ps 106: 8-9

Let them thank the Lord for his mercy,
his wonders for the children of men,
for he satisfies the thirsty soul,
and the hungry he fills with good things.

Xavier School of Mission One Word, emerging voices: Is mission the key to a synodal Church?

"Go and make disciples of all nations" Matthew 28:19

The Xavier School of Mission will ask: How do we listen to all the voices in the body of Christ? How do we have respectful conversations with people with diverse opinions? How do we understand our own 'call to mission' and that of other people and groups? How can looking outward help us to face the challenges we face within our groups and communities?

This formation experience will include prayer and reflection, lectures and small group experiences, daily Eucharist, and opportunities for one-to-one mentoring.
