Thank you to everyone who contacted their MP regarding the Euthanasia Bill in Parliament. Please keep this prayer in your home over the next few weeks:

Loving God, we turn to you in this hour of need. You are the creator of all things and hold all life as sacred in your hands, as you have taught. We pray that our Parliamentarians' ears are open, that they hear your word, and use their voice to prevent this Voluntary Assisted Dying legislation from entering our services and facilities, so that we remain free to support and provide the best possible care for our most vulnerable people with dignity and respect for their intrinsic worth, to their final hour.

FAN THE FLAME PLENARY COUNCIL REFLECTION
 'If anyone wants to be a follower of mine, let him renounce him-self and take up his cross and follow me.' Mark 8:27-35 There can be no shortcuts, no bypassing the cross or the tomb, to encounter the resurrection. For new life and new hope to emerge, we need to acknowledge that we are a broken, hurt and traumatised Church... by standing in solidarity and compassion with each other, particularly the wounded, the poor and the traumatised. 24th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
12 Sept 2021 - Year B

Safeguarding Sunday 2021
 Australian Bishops Conference

Safeguarding Sunday, comes at the end of Child Protection Week, whose theme this year is: Every child, in every community deserves a fair go. This day we recall the terrible suffering of people who were abused as children in our Church and resolve, 'Never again'. This year, however, we focus more broadly on ensuring that in our Church all people are safeguarded.

This resolution is central to our Catholic Church. It is our mission, which comes from God. We are called to be a community that follows Jesus and attracts people to recognise God's love. The Church is called to be place of love, generosity, respect, forgiveness, prayer and hospitality - all the qualities found in Jesus' life.

That is our Catholic ideal. The reality, of course, is much more mixed. In our relationships we often fail in love and respect. We need to work at all the relationships that make up our church so that they reflect the values enshrined in our mission. The love and respect that Jesus shows in the Gospel stories must be shown in all Church decisions, meetings and relationships. It must translate into welcome at the Church door, gentility in answering phones, promptness in responding to requests, and care to listen to complaints. The way in which we do things must reflect our mission.

Ensuring that all Catholics are safe
 Safeguarding Sunday invites us to ask whether the relationships within our Church express respect for people, and especially vulnerable people, who are precious in God's sight. It leads us to ask how respect can be translated into policies, protocols and guidelines that spell out in detail how as Catholics we do things. Our procedures must protect people from disrespect.

When we think of safeguarding it is right to think first of children. We may never forget the terrible crimes of sexual abuse and its cover up that priests and other Catholics in positions of trust have committed against children. Abuse and official tolerance of it could happen only because there were no safeguards against it.

In recent years those safeguards have been put in place for children. In most of our Catholic parishes and schools we can say fairly confidently that children get a fair go. We need to keep working especially at it. But we need also to ensure that in all the daily relationships where there is a difference in power people can feel safe. These relationships include those of priests with parishioners, spiritual guides with clients, managers with employees, and volunteers with those whom they help. In all of these relationships those with less power must be safeguarded. That is what safeguarding Sunday is about. It gives Christ's mission flesh and bone in day to day life.

The readings for Safeguarding Sunday do not have anything specific to say about the policies, guidelines and practices involved in safeguarding. They focus rather on the depth and the cost of following Jesus in his way of love and respect. They suggest also that we always need to look at safeguarding from the perspective of persons who are vulnerable, not of the Church as an organisation.

Readings at Mass

Entrance Antiphon Ecclus 36: 18

Give peace, O Lord, to those who wait for you, that your prophets be found true. Hear the prayers of your servant, and of your people Israel.

First reading Isaiah 50:5-9

The Lord has opened my ear. For my part, I made no resistance, neither did I turn away. I offered my back to those who struck me, my cheeks to those who tore at my beard; I did not cover my face against insult and spittle. The Lord comes to my help, so that I am untouched by the insults. So, too, I set my face like flint; I know I shall not be shamed. My vindicator is here at hand. Does anyone start proceedings against me? Then let us go to court together. Who thinks he has a case against me? Let him approach me. The Lord is coming to my help, who will dare to condemn me?

Responsorial Psalm Psalm 114:1-6,8-9 R.v.9

I will walk in the presence of the Lord in the land of the living.

I love the Lord for he has heard
the cry of my appeal;
for he turned his ear to me
in the day when I called him. R/
They surrounded me, the snares of death,
with the anguish of the tomb;
they caught me, sorrow and distress.
I called on the Lord's name.
O Lord, my God, deliver me! R/
How gracious is the Lord, and just;
our God has compassion.
The Lord protects the simple hearts;
I was helpless so he saved me. R/
He has kept my soul from death,
my eyes from tears
and my feet from stumbling.
I will walk in the presence of the Lord
in the land of the living. R/

Second reading James 2:14-18

Take the case, my brothers, of someone who has never done a single good act but claims that he has faith. Will that faith save him? If one of the brothers or one of the sisters is in need of clothes and has not enough food to live on, and one of you says to them, 'I wish you well; keep yourself warm and eat plenty', without giving them these bare necessities of life, then what good is that? Faith is like that: if good works do not go with it, it is quite dead.

This is the way to talk to people of that kind: 'You say you have faith and I have good deeds; I will prove to you that I have faith by showing you my good deeds – now you prove to me that you have faith without any good deeds to show.'

Gospel Acclamation Galatians 6:14

Alleluia, alleluia!
My only glory is the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ,
which crucifies the world to me and me to the world.
Alleluia!

Gospel Mark 8:27-35

You are the Christ...

The Son of Man was destined to suffer much.

Jesus and his disciples left for the villages round Caesarea Philippi. On the way he put this question to his disciples, 'Who do people say I am?' And they told him, 'John the Baptist,' they said 'others Elijah; others again, one of the prophets.' 'But you,' he asked 'who do you say I am?' Peter spoke up and said to him, 'You are the Christ.' And he gave them strict orders not to tell anyone about him. And he began to teach them that the Son of Man was des-tinued to suffer grievously, to be rejected by the elders and the chief priests and the scribes, and to be put to death, and after three days to rise again; and he said all this quite openly. Then, taking him aside, Peter started to remonstrate with him. But, turning and seeing his disciples, he rebuked Peter and said to him, 'Get behind me, Satan! Because the way you think is not God's way but man's.'

He called the people and his disciples to him and said, 'If anyone wants to be a follower of mine, let him renounce himself and take up his cross and follow me. For anyone who wants to save his life will lose it; but anyone who loses his life for my sake, and for the sake of the gospel, will save it.'

Communion Antiphon Cf. Ps 35: 8

How precious is your mercy, O God!
The children of men seek shelter in the shadow of your wings.

Next Sunday's readings: 1st reading: Wls 2:12, 17-20,

Parishioners kick in to give new freezer!

Sr Salvacion, our Pastoral Coordinator, was beaming with joy today as John O'Gorman, President of our local Vinnies Conference and parishioner of St Francis of Assisi, delivered a new Deep Freezer to Sr Salvacion for the St Francis Table Ministry.

This freezer has been donated by 4 very generous St Francis families who were happy to donate to the ministry because of the great work Sr Salvacion and her team do in our parish for the elderly. A Huge Thank You to each and every one of you.
