3rd Sunday of Advent 13 December 2020 - Year B

Dear Parishioners

This Sunday, the third Sunday of Advent is called "Gaudete Sunday" which means to "rejoice" because the entrance antiphon of Holy Mass takes up St Paul's words in the Letter to the Philippians where it says: "Rejoice in the Lord always; again, I will say, Rejoice". And immediately after he explains the reason, because, "The Lord is at hand" (Phil 4: 4-5). This is the reason for joy. But what does "the Lord is at hand" mean? In what sense must we understand this "closeness" of God? This coming Christmas will remind us of this fundamental truth of our faith that soon we will see in front of the manger and savour Christian joy contemplating in the newborn Jesus the Face of God who made him close to us out of love.

The spiritual joy that marks the Christian faith is that we are waiting for the coming of the Lord, and our entry into a life of eternal communion with God. The other is the willingness to share that joy with others those who are struggling, spiritually, mentally and emotionally at this time of Pandemic. To have that true Joy of Christ in us, St. Pauls says in the second reading to the Thessalonians " Be happy at all times; pray constantly and for all things give thanks to God, because this is what God expects you to do in Christ Jesus." In the first reading prophet Isaiah says, " As the earth makes fresh things grow, and garden makes seeds spring up, so the Lord who is coming at this season make both integrity and praise, spring up in the sight of nations." So let us to do our bit, in our time, to realise the goals of Jesus in our world to be fulfilled in our families and communities.

Readings at Mass

Entrance Antiphon Phil 4: 4-5

Rejoice in the Lord always; again I say, rejoice. Indeed, the Lord is near.

First reading Isaiah 61:1-2,10-11

The spirit of the Lord has been given to me, for the Lord has anointed me. He has sent me to bring good news to the poor, to bind up hearts that are broken; to proclaim liberty to captives, freedom to those in prison; to proclaim a year of favour from the Lord. 'I exult for joy in the Lord, my soul rejoices in my God, for he has clothed me in the garments of salvation, he has wrapped me in the cloak of integrity, like a bridegroom wearing his wreath, like a bride adorned in her jewels. 'For as the earth makes fresh things grow, as a garden makes seeds spring up, so will the Lord make both integrity and praise spring up in the sight of the nations.'

Responsorial Psalm Luke 1:46-50,53-54

R/ My soul rejoices in my God.

My soul glorifies the Lord,

My spirit rejoices in God, my Saviour.

He looks on his servant in her nothingness;

henceforth all ages will call me blessed. R/

The Almighty works marvels for me.

Holy his name!

His mercy is from age to age,

on those who fear him. R/

He fills the starving with good things, sends the rich away empty.

He protects Israel, his servant,

remembering his mercy. R/

Second reading 1 Thessalonians 5:16-24

Be happy at all times; pray constantly; and for all things give thanks to God, because this is what God expects you to do in Christ Jesus. Never try to suppress the Spirit or treat the gift of prophecy with contempt; think before you do anything – hold on to what is good and avoid every form of evil. May the God of peace make you perfect and holy; and may you all be kept safe and blameless, spirit, soul and body, for the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. God has called you and he will not fail you.

Gospel Acclamation Isaiah 61:1 (Luke 4:18)

Alleluia, alleluia! The Spirit of the Lord is upon me; he sent me to bring Good News to the poor. Alleluia!

Gospel John 1:6-8,19-28

'There stands among you, unknown to you, the one who is coming after me'

A man came, sent by God.

His name was John.

He came as a witness,

as a witness to speak for the light,

so that everyone might believe through him.

He was not the light,

only a witness to speak for the light.

This is how John appeared as a witness. When the Jews sent priests and Levites from Jerusalem to ask him, 'Who are you?' he not only declared, but he declared quite openly, 'I am not the Christ.' 'Well then,' they asked 'are you Elijah?' 'I am not' he said. 'Are you the Prophet?' He answered, 'No.' So they said to him, 'Who are you? We must take back an answer to those who sent us. What have you to say about yourself?' So John said, 'I am, as Isaiah prophesied: a voice that cries in the wilderness:

Make a straight way for the Lord.'

Now these men had been sent by the Pharisees, and they put this further question to him, 'Why are you baptising if you are not the Christ, and not Elijah, and not the prophet?' John replied, 'I baptise with water; but there stands among you – unknown to you – the one who is coming after me; and I am not fit to undo his sandal-strap.' This happened at Bethany, on the far side of the Jordan, where John was baptising.

Communion Antiphon Cf. Is 35: 4

Say to the faint of heart: Be strong and do not fear.

Behold, our God will come, and he will save us.

Next Sunday's readings: 1st reading: 2 Sam 7:1-5, 8-12, 14, 16; 2nd reading: Rom 16:25-27; Gospel Lk 1: 26-38
