Second Sunday of Lent (Year C)
 17th March 2019

This year the local WORLD DAY OF PRAYER Service was hosted by Dutton Park Parish and held at St Francis Church on 1 March. We welcomed members of the West End Uniting Church & St Andrew's Anglican Church, together with parishioners from St Mary's and Dutton Park Parishes. We were also delighted that the Year 6 Leaders from St Ita's School together with the APRE Olivia O'Donnell, attended and participated beautifully in the Prayers Of Thanksgiving & Intercession. At short notice Sister Salvacion kindly accepted the invitation to be Speaker for the event and offered a very inspiring talk. The women of Slovenia prepared the worship service with the theme 'Come - Everything is ready!' Let us praise God together. Special thanks to all who offered their gifts in many & varied ways to ensure the success of this very meaningful ecumenical occasion... from participating as readers, in music ministry, decorating the church, welcoming our guests, collecting the offering, preparing the hall for afternoon tea, providing food including a Slovenian cake, serving our guests and cleaning up afterwards.
 (World Day of Prayer is a global ecumenical movement led by Christian women who welcome all to join in prayer and action for peace and justice)

Project Compassion 2019 Hope

 This light, is the light of hope. It enables us to rise above our fears and helps those in great need to shape a better future for their communities. Please consider giving generously this Lent. Envelopes and boxes are available for collection at mass.

2019 Confirmation Program Enrolments

 Information Session on Wednesday 3rd April 6pm (in church)
 Enrolment form is available on our website
 Forms must be returned by Fri 27th March

Please note that recently I have made a decision to split the two collections taken up during mass into 50/50. Most of the time, the 2nd collection is lower than the 1st. The 1st collection (after levies) goes to the friars (Fr Bollar and I are not employees of the archdiocese.) The 2nd Collection (after levies) stays in the parish to pay for the running costs of the parish and all its buildings. Fr Lam.

READINGS AT MASS

Entrance Antiphon Cf. Ps 26: 8-9

Of you my heart has spoken, Seek his face.
It is your face, O Lord, that I seek;
hide not your face from me.

First reading Genesis 15:5-12,17-18

Taking Abram outside, the Lord said, 'Look up to heaven and count the stars if you can.' 'Such will be your descendants,' he told him. Abram put his faith in the Lord, who counted this as making him justified.

'I am the Lord' he said to him 'who brought you out of Ur of the Chaldeans to make you heir to this land.' 'My Lord,' Abram replied 'how am I to know that I shall inherit it?' He said to him, 'Get me a three-year-old heifer, a three-year-old goat, a three-year-old ram, a turtledove and a young pigeon.' He brought him all these, cut them in half and put half on one side and half facing it on the other; but the birds he did not cut in half. Birds of prey came down on the carcasses but Abram drove them off.

When the sun had set and darkness had fallen, there appeared a smoking furnace and a firebrand that went between the halves. That day the Lord made a Covenant with

Abram in these terms: 'To your descendants I give this land, from the wadi of Egypt to the Great River.'

Responsorial Psalm Psalm 26(27):1,7-9,13-14

The Lord is my light and my salvation.

Second reading Philippians 3:17-4:1

My brothers, be united in following my rule of life. Take as your models everybody who is already doing this and study them as you used to study us. I have told you often, and I repeat it today with tears, there are many who are behaving as the enemies of the cross of Christ. They are destined to be lost. They make foods into their god and they are proudest of something they ought to think shameful; the things they think important are earthly things. For us, our homeland is in heaven, and from heaven comes the saviour we are waiting for, the Lord Jesus Christ, and he will transfigure these wretched bodies of ours into copies of his glorious body. He will do that by the same power with which he can subdue the whole universe.

So then, my brothers and dear friends, do not give way but remain faithful in the Lord. I miss you very much, dear friends; you are my joy and my crown.

Gospel Acclamation Matthew 17:5

Glory and praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ!
From the shining cloud the Father's voice is heard:
this is my beloved Son, hear him.

Glory and praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ!

Gospel Luke 9:28-36

Jesus took with him Peter and John and James and went up the mountain to pray. As he prayed, the aspect of his face was changed and his clothing became brilliant as lightning. Suddenly there were two men there talking to him; they were Moses and Elijah appearing in glory, and they were speaking of his passing which he was to accomplish in Jerusalem. Peter and his companions were heavy with sleep, but they kept awake and saw his glory and the two men standing with him. As these were leaving him, Peter said to Jesus, 'Master, it is wonderful for us to be here; so let us make three tents, one for you, one for Moses and one for Elijah.' - He did not know what he was saying. As he spoke, a cloud came and covered them with shadow; and when they went into the cloud the disciples were afraid. And a voice came from the cloud saying, 'This is my Son, the Chosen One. Listen to him.' And after the voice had spoken, Jesus was found alone. The disciples kept silence and, at that time, told no one what they had seen.

Communion Antiphon Mt 17: 5

This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased; listen to him.

Next Sunday's readings: 1st reading: Ex 3:1-8,13-15; 2nd reading: 1Cor 10:1-6,10-12; Gospel: Lk13:1-9

2 Minute Catechism

Why we skip the Alleluia during Lent
By Fr. Corwin Low, O.P.

For the entire season of Lent the Church has banished the use of the word Alleluia from its public liturgies (e.g., Mass). Alleluia (Halleluja as spelt in older uses of English) is a Hebrew word that means, literally, "Praise to God." This praise has a joyful overtone to it and we use it especially during happy celebrations. And while we do praise God all year round, during Lent we withhold a bit of our joy and happiness because of the season's penitential and sorrowful character. After all, we are anticipating Jesus' very passion and death.

Throughout the year, before the proclamation of the gospel we sing an Alleluia. We sing our joy because Jesus Christ gave us the gospels, the Word of God, containing his good news—our instruction manual for salvation. But during Lent, we dial-down that quality. And while we still praise God before the Gospel, we reserve the word Alleluia, the highest form of praise, for happier times.

Of course, Easter Sunday has arrived and it is indeed a happier time. Not only has Jesus' passion and death passed, but he has also been resurrected. And it is through this resurrection that we can be assured of salvation, of everlasting life. So how do we express our joy? Not only do we bring the Alleluia back, we bring it back in triples. For the entire Easter octave (Easter lasts 8 full days from Easter Sunday through the following Sunday), at the end of Mass, we sing a very special, Alleluia—3 times.

We tend to take the word Alleluia for granted. We hear it so often that it tends to lose its meaning. This is why the Church removes its use for the 40 days of Lent. By removing it, we miss it. And when we miss it, we tend to long for it. And we long for it, when it comes back we rejoice—bringing its significance back into full force. Listen for it! And rejoice.
Christ is Risen! He is Risen, indeed! Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia!
