THE MOST HOLY BODY AND BLOOD OF CHRIST SUNDAY (CORPUS CHRISTI)
 23 June 2019 - Year C

Dear Parishioners,
 Today is Corpus Christi Sunday. 'Corpus Christi' is Latin for the "Body of Christ." Today's feast is, moreover, the Church's official act of homage and gratitude to Christ, who by instituting the Holy Eucharist gave to the Church her greatest treasure. It is a day of great joy for us. Join us this Sunday, as a Parish community, when we will take part in a public procession of the Blessed Sacrament (Corpus Christi Procession) on the streets of Brisbane. We will meet at the carpark of St Mary's at 1pm and walk over to the Cathedral.

Corpus Christi Procession is a public procession of Jesus' Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity under the appearances of bread, the host, walking through the streets. The custom dates back to the feast of the Blessed Sacrament established in 1246 by the Bishop of Liege, Belgium, after Jesus told St. Juliana of Mount Carvillon she was to promote it. By 1264, Pope Urban IV extended the feast to the whole Church. In the early 14th century the custom began of carrying the Blessed Sacrament after Mass through the town in a beautiful procession.

The prayer space of St Ita's is now completed and it looks beautiful. A perfect time for the centenary celebration of St Ita's school. 2019 marks 100 years of education at St Ita's Primary School. We will have a special mass to celebrate this milestone on Sunday 11th August at 9am.

The prayer space will allow our children and parishioners to come closer to Our Lady in a sacred and peaceful space. This prayer space will be blessed at the school's feast-day mass on Friday 19th July. I would like to thank the P&F of the school for contributing to this project. I was told that the statue of Mary was given to Fr Bernard O'Shea by his family. Fr O'Shea was Parish Priest at St Mary's, South Brisbane, in 1943. In 1952 he became Parish Priest at St Ita's, Dutton Park, and remained there for the next three decades.

Our next Rising Youth Ministry (RYM) event will be on Sunday 14th July, 1.30-3pm at St Francis Hall. The theme for this gathering is "Being kind even when it's tough to be kind." Please ask your children to attend. See the flyer at the back of the newsletter for more detail. Refugee Week is an incredible opportunity for the whole nation to celebrate the contribution refugees make to our society, while raising awareness, remembering and honouring the often perilous journey that refugees have taken to reach Australia. Please keep all refugees in your prayers this week

Peace and blessing Fr Lam

READINGS AT MASS

Entrance Antiphon Cf. Ps 80: 17

He fed them with the finest wheat and satisfied them with honey from the rock.

First reading Gen 14:18-20

Melchizedek king of Salem brought bread and wine; he was a priest of God Most High. He pronounced this blessing: 'Blessed be Abram by God Most High, creator of heaven and earth, and blessed be God Most High for handing over your enemies to you.'
 And Abram gave him a tithe of everything.

Responsorial Psalm Ps 109(110):1-4

You are a priest for ever, in the line of Melchizedek.
 The Lord's revelation to my Master:
 'Sit on my right:
 your foes I will put beneath your feet.' /R
 The Lord will wield from Zion
 your sceptre of power:
 rule in the midst of all your foes /R
 A prince from the day of your birth
 on the holy mountains;
 from the womb before the dawn I begot you./R
 The Lord has sworn an oath he will not change.
 'You are a priest for ever,
 a priest like Melchizedek of old.' /R

Second reading

1 Cor 11:23-26

This is what I received from the Lord, and in turn passed on to you: that on the same night that he was betrayed, the Lord Jesus took some bread, and thanked God for it and broke it, and he said, 'This is my body, which is for you; do this as a memorial of me.' In the same way he took the cup after supper, and said, 'This cup is the new covenant in my blood. Whenever you drink it, do this as a memorial of me.' Until the Lord comes, therefore, every time you eat this bread and drink this cup, you are proclaiming his death.

Gospel Acclamation

John 6:51-52

Alleluia, alleluia!

I am the living bread from heaven, says the Lord;
 whoever eats this bread will live for ever.
 Alleluia!

Gospel

Luke 9:11-17

Jesus made the crowds welcome and talked to them about the kingdom of God; and he cured those who were in need of healing.

It was late afternoon when the Twelve came to him and said, 'Send the people away, and they can go to the villages and farms round about to find lodging and food; for we are in a lonely place here.' He replied, 'Give them something to eat yourselves.' But they said, 'We have no more than five loaves and two fish, unless we are to go ourselves and buy food for all these people.' For there were about five thousand men. But he said to his disciples, 'Get them to sit down in parties of about fifty.' They did so and made them all sit down. Then he took the five loaves and the two fish, raised his eyes to heaven, and said the blessing over them; then he broke them and handed them to his disciples to distribute among the crowd. They all ate as much as they wanted, and when the scraps remaining were collected they filled twelve baskets.

Communion Antiphon

John 6: 57

Whoever eats my flesh and drinks my blood remains in me and I in him, says the Lord.

Next Sunday's readings: 1st reading: 1Kg 19:16, 19-21;
 2nd reading: Gal 5:1, 13-18; Gospel: Lk 9:51-62

PLENARY COUNCIL 2020: National Theme for Discernment #2 How is God calling us to be a Christ-centred Church that is inclusive, Participatory and Synodal?

This National Theme for Discernment is inspired by the voices of the People of God who expressed a desire for individuals and groups within and also beyond the Church to find a better welcome and be incorporated more into her life and mission.

Mass and Rosary

St Mary's Church is seeking new members for the Sunday Mass Choirs. If you interested, please see father after Mass.

Sign the petition today calling on the senate to protect religious freedom. There is no doubt it is getting harder for Christians to live out their faith in modern Australia. These are challenging times for people who believe the Bible and want to live out its teachings. That's why we need to call on the parliament to introduce greater legal protections to ensure that Christians are not discriminated against at school, university, work or in our communities. So please take action today by signing the petition to the Senate calling for tougher anti-discrimination laws. <https://www.acl.org.au>

Position Vacant – Administrative Assistant (part time)

The Brisbane office of Catholic Mission is looking for a permanent, part-time Administrative Assistant. To find out more, please click on this link or visit the Catholic Mission website and look for the tab 'Jobs at Catholic Mission'. The Archdiocese of Brisbane has standards of conduct for employees and volunteers to maintain a safe and healthy environment. Our commitment to these standards requires that we conduct background referencing for all persons who will engage in direct and regular involvement with children, young people and/or vulnerable adults.

Youth Corner

Do you ever find yourself in a tough situation and all you want to do is lie in bed? Often times when we are faced with a tough situation all we think about is how much our situation feels overwhelming. All these thoughts like, "Why does this happen to me? What have I done to deserve this? Life would be so much easier if this didn't happen" come rushing into our heads.

However, I think it is time we change our thinking surrounding tough situations. Yes, it may hurt and make you feel terrible, but I like to think of the hard times as a blessing in disguise. It may be hard to see this in the moment, but trust in Him that your brokenness has a wonderful purpose. Plus, God knows what you are going through and where you are headed and has your back forever and always.

During school some people did not say nice things about me, and it made me quite upset. Through this experience, God taught me how to forgive others even when what someone does or says hurts me a lot. While this entire situation made me sad in the moment, I am so grateful that God let me go through this experience so I could learn the importance of forgiveness.

Even though difficult times are not fun, often a lot of good comes out of them. It is when we are faced with these situations that God is able to teach us a lesson and shape us into a better version of ourselves. Alysha

And yet he knows every step I take! Let him test me in the crucible: I shall come out pure gold. Job 23:10
