

Dutton Park and South Brisbane Parish Newsletter

Everyone who exalts themselves shall be humbled.

Salvation is such a major talking point in the Christian world, and you'll get every view under the sun depending on where you go. The first thing to note is that Heaven and Hell exist. Don't be fooled by the person who says Hell doesn't exist.

Since God is love and has such a profound respect for who we are as persons, we have the freedom to choose whether or not we love God in return. God is also a God of order, so there are systems in place.

Whenever we do not choose God, we essentially choose ourselves or whatever else, but the pathway of constantly choosing the self leads to Hell. Hell exists because freedom exists.

What we do with our freedom matters, but, as we've heard from our Gospel today, salvation is more than just doing the right thing.

Salvation is through Jesus who is the way, the truth and the life (Jn 14:6). We can be as charitable as Mother Teresa or as kind as St Francis of Assisi but if we do not have Jesus in our lives then we miss the mark.

Choosing Jesus will always be a readjustment for us because Christ is untameable and fierce. We won't truly attain the fullness of life that is prepared for us because it won't be achieved until the end of time – but we're still encouraged to pursue whatever is laid before us because the Lord desires it. As we heard last week, 'I have come to bring fire upon the earth, how I wish it were blazing already (Lk 12:49).'

Making a choice for Christ is a dangerous thing for our comfort zones because we will constantly be called out of it to respond. The one who follows the Lord knows how to be comfortable with the uncomfortable; resting on the fact that despite what might come our way, the Lord is always with us.

Jesus is the way, let's come back to the Lord and make those adjustments towards heaven.

Readings at Mass

First Reading

Isaiah 66:18-21

The Lord says this: I am coming to gather the nations of every language. They shall come to witness my glory. I will give them a sign and send some of their survivors to the nations: to Tarshish, Put, Lud, Moshech, Rosh, Tubal, and Javan, to the distant islands that have never heard of me or seen my glory. They will proclaim my glory to the nations. As an offering to the Lord they will bring all your brothers, on horses, in chariots, in litters, on mules, on dromedaries, from all the nations to my holy mountain in Jerusalem, says the Lord, like Israelites bringing oblations in clean vessels to the Temple of the Lord. And of some of them I will make priests and Levites, says the Lord.

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 116 (117)

R/ Go out to all the world, and tell the Good News.

O praise the Lord, all you nations,
acclaim him all you peoples! R/

Strong is his love for us;
he is faithful for ever. R/

Second Reading

Hebrews 12:5-7, 11-13

Have you forgotten that encouraging text in which you are addressed as sons? My son, when the Lord corrects you, do not treat it lightly; but do not get discouraged when he reprimands you. For the Lord trains the ones that he loves and he punishes all those that he acknowledges as his sons. Suffering is part of your training; God is treating you as his sons.

Has there ever been any son whose father did not train him? Of course, any punishment is most painful at the time, and far from pleasant; but later, in those on whom it has been used, it bears fruit in peace and goodness. So hold up your limp arms and steady your trembling knees and smooth out the path you tread; then the injured limb will not be wrenched, it will grow strong again.

Gospel Acclamation

John 14:6

Alleluia, alleluia!
I am the way, the truth, and the life, says the Lord;
no one comes to the Father, except through me.
Alleluia!

Gospel

Luke 13:22-30

Through towns and villages Jesus went teaching, making his way to Jerusalem. Someone said to him, 'Sir, will there be only a few saved?' He said to them, 'Try your best to enter by the narrow door, because, I tell you, many will try to enter and will not succeed.

'Once the master of the house has got up and locked the door, you may find yourself knocking on the door, saying, "Lord, open to us" but he will answer, "I do not know where you come from."

Then you will find yourself saying, "We once ate and drank in your company; you taught in our streets" but he will reply, "I do not know where you come from. Away from me, all you wicked men!"

'Then there will be weeping and grinding of teeth, when you see Abraham and Isaac and Jacob and all the prophets in the kingdom of God, and yourselves turned outside. And men from east and west, from north and south, will come to take their places at the feast in the kingdom of God.

'Yes, there are those now last who will be first, and those now first who will be last.'
