Palm Sunday 28 March 2021 - Year B

Dear Parishioners

With the celebration of the Palm Sunday or the Passion Sunday we enter into the Holy Week. Passion Sunday is a day to reflect on the pain, suffering and death of our Lord Jesus. The day begins with the triumphant entry of Jesus into Jerusalem as King. He is entering with majesty into the Temple city to celebrate the Passover. The gospels record his arrival riding on a donkey, while the crowds spread their cloaks and palm branches on the street and shout "Hosanna to the Son of David" and "Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord." There is the manifestation of joy and enthusiastic welcome from the crowds as Jesus enters Jerusalem. They honour him as their long-awaited Messiah and King who has come victorious. The significance of Jesus riding a donkey and having his way paved with palm branches is a fulfilment of a prophecy spoken by the prophet Zechariah and in so doing emphasized the humility that was to characterize the Kingdom he proclaimed. In those days the regional custom called for kings and nobles to arrive in procession riding on the back of a donkey. The donkey was a symbol of peace and those who rode upon them proclaimed peaceful intentions. The laying of palm branches indicated that the king or dignitary arriving in victory or triumph.

Just as the people gathered on the road and spread their clothes and went in procession so also the church today holds a procession to remember the entry of Jesus into Jerusalem. The simplest of terms, Palm Sunday is an occasion to reflect on the final week of Jesus' life. It is a time for Christians to prepare their hearts for the mystery of salvation.

Readings at Mass

This gospel is read at the procession with palms before Mass:

Gospel Mark 11:1-10

When they drew near to Jerusalem, to Bethphage and Bethany, at the Mount of Olives, Jesus sent two of his disciples, and said to them, 'Go into the village opposite you, and immediately as you enter it you will find a colt tied, on which no one has ever sat; untie it and bring it. If any one says to you, "Why are you doing this?" say, "The Lord has need of it and will send it back here immediately.'" And they went away, and found a colt tied at the door out in the open street; and they untied it. And those who stood there said to them, 'What are you doing, untying the colt?' And they told them what Jesus had said; and they let them go. And they brought the colt to Jesus, and threw their garments on it; and he sat upon it. And many spread their garments on the road, and others spread leafy branches which they had cut from the fields. And those who went before and those who followed cried out, 'Hosanna! Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord! Blessed is the kingdom of our father David that is coming! Hosanna in the highest!'

Entrance Antiphon Cf. Jn 12: 1, 12-13; Ps 23: 9-10

Six days before the Passover, when the Lord came into the city of Jerusalem, the children ran to meet him; in their hands they carried palm branches and with a loud voice cried out:

Hosanna in the highest!

Blessed are you, who have come in your abundant mercy!

O gates, lift high your heads; grow higher, ancient doors. Let him enter, the king of glory! Who is this king of glory?

He, the Lord of hosts, he is the king of glory.

Hosanna in the highest!

Blessed are you, who have come in your abundant mercy!

First reading Isaiah 50:4-7

I did not cover my face against insult and I know I will not be ashamed.

Psalm Psalm 21:8-9, 17-20, 23-24

Response: My God, my God, why have you abandoned me?

Second reading Philippians 2:6-11

He humbled himself to become like us and God raised him on high.

Gospel Acclamation Philippians 2:8-9

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ, king of endless glory! Christ became obedient for us even to death, dying on the cross.

Therefore God raised him on high and gave him a name above all other names.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ, king of endless glory!

Gospel Mark 14:1-15:47

The passion of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark.

Communion Antiphon Matthew 26: 42

Father, if this chalice cannot pass without my drinking it, your will be done.

Next Sunday's readings: 1st reading: Acts 10:34, 37-43; 2nd reading: Col 3:1-4; Gospel: Jn 20:1-9

Sr Salvacion Bunao, Pastoral Coordinator

Good Friday's Collection

This collection will be given to support the missionary work of the church in the Holy Land. The annual Good Friday collection unites all Christians in supporting our brothers and sisters in the Holy Land. It allows our parishioners to help maintain a presence of Christians in the Middle East.

Volunteers Needed | New Sacramental Team Assistants

Sr Salvacion, as Pastoral Coordinator, heads up our Parish Sacramental Program under the direction of Fr Joshy.

Sr Salvacion and the Missionaries of Charity Sisters together are the main teachers and facilitators of our program that combines the groups from all of our churches and schools within our parish boundaries.

They are requiring a volunteer team to support them in the general running of each Sacramental Program—there are 3 sacramental programs each year.

The successful applicants will be required to attend all functions including Information Evenings, Retreat days (normally a Saturday) and the celebration itself. They will be required to work as a team to assist in administrations, registrations, catering and any other requirements at the direction of the Pastoral Coordinator.

Ideal qualities for this role would include a willingness to take directions, undertake a full induction and training program, work as a team and have good organisational skills to carry out the program in place.

If you are interested in applying to volunteer in this team please contact the Parish Office directly. Note all volunteers are required to be registered within the parish and complete all the safeguarding steps.

The Archdiocese of Brisbane has standards of conduct for workers to maintain a safe and healthy environment for children. Our commitment to these standards requires that we conduct working with children checks and background referencing for all persons who will engage in direct and regular involvement with children and young people (0 - 18 years) and/or vulnerable adults. The organisation is fully committed to child safety and has a 0 tolerance to abuse of children or vulnerable adults.

Volunteers | Safeguarding Update

All Volunteers who are involved in the following areas will need to complete the Level 2 Online Training now referred to as: Applied Safeguarding Training.

All registered Archdiocesan volunteers who work with children or adults-at-risk must complete the Applied Safeguarding training—in addition to the Safeguarding Induction which is the first level training you did when you registered. Follow these instructions to complete and register confirmation.

Step 1: Visit the Safeguarding site

<https://brisbanecatholic.org.au/safeguarding/safeguarding-training/>

Step 2: Scroll down to the Red links and click on Applied Safeguarding Training Video

Step 3: After the training is finished download, complete and sign the Confirmation of Safeguarding Training Completion form and submit to the PARISH OFFICE for verification. After verifying it will be processed through the Archdiocese People & Culture Team.

Volunteer Roles that need to complete this training:

Children's Liturgy		Sacramental Team Assistants
Sacristans		Administration in office
Choir / Music Conductor		RCIA Leader
Altar Servers (over 18 ys)		Acolyte
Catechist		Cleaners (on school grounds)

Care and Concern—Home visits

Altar Server Co-ordinator/Trainer

Extraordinary Minister of Holy Communion to the Sick in Private Homes or Nursing Homes or Hospital

St Francis Table (this only applies to those who do delivery to the Elderly in their homes and all leaders/supervisors)

Sacramental Preparation or Program Coordinators Leaders Outreach—homeless support

ALL new volunteers to these areas need to complete.

ALL volunteers who completed the parish level 2 course in 2017—need to complete, as a refresher is required every 2 years.

Safeguarding Children and Vulnerable Adults Prevention and Protection Policy.

The Archdiocese of Brisbane holds that children, young people and vulnerable adults are a gift from God with an intrinsic right to dignity of life, respect and security from physical and emotional harm. They are to be treasured, nurtured and safeguarded by all. This means that everyone in the church must ensure that the fundamental rights of children, young people & vulnerable adults are respected. This will be achieved through the development of respectful relationships and a commitment to safety, embracing appropriate boundaries, behaviours and practices, in accordance with the Archdiocesan Code of Ethical Behaviour and adherence to legislative imperatives of the State.

Our Parish supports and adheres to this Policy.

EVANGELISATION BRISBANE

Free Resources for Families and Children

Holy Week is just around the corner, marking the most important season of the Christian calendar – when we remember Jesus' death on the cross and celebrate his resurrection. This is an incredibly special week, no matter how old you are, and so we wanted to share a few ideas to engage the kids in our families and parishes, so that they can walk with Jesus through this Holy Week also.
