

Dutton Park and South Brisbane Parish Newsletter

To whom will all this wealth of yours go to?

Dear Brothers and Sisters.

This weekend, in the Gospel, Jesus warns us against greed and the false security we place in material possessions. He reminds us that true wealth lies not in what we accumulate, but in being "rich toward God."

In our family life, this teaching invites us to cultivate simplicity, gratitude, and trust in God's providence. Our homes are called to be "domestic churches," where faith is lived daily, measured not by material success, but by the quality of shared love. Moments of shared meals, collective prayers, and acts of mutual care become treasures of eternal value. Teaching children to value what they have, to give generously, and to recognise God's blessings in the little things is a powerful way to form hearts rich in faith. In this way, the family becomes a living witness that true happiness does not depend on possessions, but on living in God's love.

In our parish life, this teaching invites us to build a community where the most important thing is not resources, events, or physical structures, but the experience of faith, charity, and communion. While good organisation and adequate resources are valuable, they must always serve a greater mission: leading people to Christ. This means prioritising the proclamation of the Word, the celebration of the sacraments, and concrete actions of service to those in need. A parish rich in God is one where relationships are built on fraternity, where the poor are cared for, and where every activity is rooted in prayer and love.

In our social lives, this teaching invites us to live with integrity, generosity, and detachment from the constant pressure to appear successful through wealth or possessions, in front of others or on social media. In practice, this means resisting consumerism, practising justice in our work and relationships, and making time for acts of service in our communities. It invites us to invest in friendships, solidarity, and shared projects that promote justice and the common good. By prioritising people over profit and values over vanity, we witness in the public sphere that true wealth comes from a life aligned with God's love and truth.

Thus, in both family, parish and social life, living this Gospel means changing our logic: not accumulating only for ourselves, but investing in what has eternal value. This is built through listening to the Word, participating in the sacraments, and committing to charity. In this way, our lives will be truly abundant, not in possessions, but in grace and love. God bless you.

Readings at Mass

18th Sunday in Ordinary Time
3 August 2025

First Reading

Ecclesiastes 1:2, 2:21

Vanity of vanities, the Preacher says. Vanity of vanities. All is vanity!

For so it is that a man who has laboured wisely, skilfully and successfully must leave what is his own to someone who has not toiled for it at all. This, too, is vanity and great injustice; for what does he gain for all the toil and strain that he has undergone under the sun? What of all his laborious days, his cares of office, his restless nights? This, too, is vanity.

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 89(90):3-6,12-14, 17

R/ In every age, O Lord, you have been our refuge.

You turn men back to dust
and say: 'Go back, sons of men.'
To your eyes a thousand years
are like yesterday, come and gone,
no more than a watch in the night. R/

You sweep men away like a dream,
like the grass which springs up in the morning.
In the morning it springs up and flowers:
by evening it withers and fades. R/

Make us know the shortness of our life
that we may gain wisdom of heart.
Lord, relent! Is your anger for ever?
Show pity to your servants. R/

In the morning, fill us with your love;
we shall exult and rejoice all our days.
Let the favour of the Lord be upon us:
give success to the work of our hands. R/

Second Reading

Colossians 3:1-5, 9-11

Since you have been brought back to true life with Christ, you must look for the things that are in heaven, where Christ is, sitting at God's right hand. Let your thoughts be on heavenly things, not on the things that are on the earth, because you have died, and now the life you have is hidden with Christ in God. But when Christ is revealed – and he is your life – you too will be revealed in all your glory with him.

That is why you must kill everything in you that belongs only to earthly life: fornication, impurity, guilty passion, evil desires and especially greed, which is the same thing as worshipping a false god; and never tell each other lies. You have stripped off your old behaviour with your old self, and you have put on a new self which will progress towards true knowledge the more it is renewed in the image of its creator; and in that image there is no room for distinction between Greek and Jew, between the circumcised or the uncircumcised, or between barbarian and Scythian, slave and free man. There is only Christ: he is everything and he is in everything.

Gospel Acclamation

Matt 5:3

Alleluia, alleluia!
Happy the poor in spirit;
the kingdom of heaven is theirs!
Alleluia!

Gospel

Luke 12:13-21

A man in the crowd said to Jesus, 'Master, tell my brother to give me a share of our inheritance.' 'My friend,' he replied, 'who appointed me your judge, or the arbitrator of your claims?' Then he said to them, 'Watch, and be on your guard against avarice of any kind, for a man's life is not made secure by what he owns, even when he has more than he needs.'

Then he told them a parable: 'There was once a rich man who, having had a good harvest from his land, thought to himself, "What am I to do? I have not enough room to store my crops." Then he said, "This is what I will do: I will pull down my barns and build bigger ones, and store all my grain and my goods in them, and I will say to my soul: My soul, you have plenty of good things laid by for many years to come; take things easy, eat, drink, have a good time." But God said to him, "Fool! This very night the demand will be made for your soul; and this hoard of yours, whose will it be then?" So it is when a man stores up treasure for himself in place of making himself rich in the sight of God.'
