13th Sunday in Ordinary Time
30 June 2019 - Year C

Dear Parishioners,
 This Sunday we return to Ordinary Time of the Liturgical Year and that means the Gospel of focus for Year C is from St Luke.
 To call these weeks "ordinary" should not imply that this is a dull and uneventful season. Every Sunday is a celebration of the paschal mystery, but the Sundays of the festal season of Advent, Christmas, Lent and Easter focus on specific aspects of Christ's mystery. The Sundays of Ordinary Time embody the ancient tradition of the Church's celebration of the Lord's Day before the development of the cycle of solemnities and feasts.
 Luke is a doctor and is addressed as the "beloved physician" by St Paul, to whom he was a friend and disciple. Luke's medical background plays out in his descriptions of the various bodily miracles and the compassion of the Lord Jesus to those who suffered. Luke is from the Greek world. He was a Gentile and a non-Jew.
 The 'social' gospel of Luke lays before us the practical meaning of following Christ. Luke outlines the role of the disciple and the cost of discipleship in our loving response to the needy and the outcast of society. Luke assures us that the Holy Spirit is always with us as we try to become Good News for our world.

Catholics in Australia an opportunity to join in communion with the Catholic faithful throughout the world in support of the charitable works of the Holy See. "The collection allows the Holy Father to respond to the most needy throughout the world, to offer timely, effective emergency assistance to our suffering brothers and sisters."
 Peace and blessing Fr Lam

Last Sunday, as a Parish community, parishioners from both of our parishes took part in a public procession of the Blessed Sacrament (Corpus Christi Procession) and joined with thousands on the streets of Brisbane to celebrate the Feast of Corpus Christi at the Cathedral.

Pope Francis last Sunday said 'The Lord comes to our streets in order to speak a blessing for us and to give us courage. He asks that we too be blessing and gift for others.'

READINGS AT MASS

Entrance Antiphon Ps 46: 2

All peoples, clap your hands.

Cry to God with shouts of joy!

First reading 1 Kings 19:16,19-21

The Lord said to Elijah, 'Go, you are to anoint Elisha son of Shaphat, of Abel Meholah, as prophet to succeed you.'

Leaving there, Elijah came on Elisha son of Shaphat as he was ploughing behind twelve yoke of oxen, he himself being with the twelfth. Elijah passed near to him and threw his cloak over him. Elisha left his oxen and ran after Elijah. 'Let me kiss my father and mother, then I will follow you' he said. Elijah answered, 'Go, go back; for have I done anything to you?' Elisha turned away, took the pair of oxen and slaughtered them. He used the plough for cooking the oxen, then gave to his men, who ate. He then rose, and followed Elijah and became his servant.

Responsorial Psalm Psalm 15(16):1-2,5,7-11

You are my inheritance, O Lord

Second reading Galatians 5:1,13-18

When Christ freed us, he meant us to remain free. Stand firm, therefore, and do not submit again to the yoke of slavery. My brothers, you were called, as you know, to liberty; but be careful, or this liberty will provide an opening for self-indulgence. Serve one another, rather, in works of love, since the whole of the Law is summarised in a single command: Love your neighbour as yourself. If you go snapping at each other and tearing each other to pieces, you had better watch or you will destroy the whole community.

Let me put it like this: if you are guided by the Spirit you will be in no danger of yielding to self-indulgence, since self-indulgence is the opposite of the Spirit, the Spirit is totally against such a thing, and it is precisely because the two are so opposed that you do not always carry out your good intentions. If you are led by the Spirit, no law can touch you.

Gospel Acclamation 1 Sam 3:9; John 6:68c

Alleluia, alleluia!

Speak, O Lord, your servant is listening;

you have the words of everlasting life.

Alleluia!

Gospel Luke 9:51-62

As the time drew near for him to be taken up to heaven, Jesus resolutely took the road for Jerusalem and sent messengers ahead of him. These set out, and they went into a Samaritan village to make preparations for him, but the people would not receive him because he was making for Jerusalem. Seeing this, the disciples James and John said, 'Lord, do you want us to call down fire from heaven to burn them up?' But he turned and rebuked them, and they went off to another village.

As they travelled along they met a man on the road who said to him, 'I will follow you wherever you go.' Jesus answered, 'Foxes have holes and the birds of the air have nests, but the Son of Man has nowhere to lay his head.'

Another to whom he said, 'Follow me', replied, 'Let me go and bury my father first.' But he answered, 'Leave the dead to bury their dead; your duty is to go and spread the news of the kingdom of God.'

Another said, 'I will follow you, sir, but first let me go and say goodbye to my people at home.' Jesus said to him, 'Once the hand is laid on the plough, no one who looks back is fit for the kingdom of God.'

Communion Antiphon Cf. Ps 102: 1

Bless the Lord, O my soul, and all within me, his holy name.

Next Sunday's readings: 1st reading: Is 66:10-14;

2nd reading: Gal 6:14-18; Gospel: Lk 10:1-12, 17-20

Youth Corner

Why is God so Demanding?

This Sunday's gospel is scary, isn't it? One of Jesus' followers asked Him if he could bury his father first, but Jesus quickly said, "Leave the dead to bury their dead; your duty is to go and spread the news of the Kingdom of God."

Sometimes following God can be so challenging that it seems easier to give up. Wouldn't it be easier if you can gossip about whoever you want to, or watch whatever you want to, or party as much as you want to, without feeling guilty that you may be disappointing God?

I believe God has such high expectations on us because he wants us to be free. But you may ask, "If God wants us to be free, why can't I always do what I want?" Let's look at social media.

How long can you last without checking your phone? Sure, our phones can make life more convenient, but how much of our phone usage is actually helping us live more fulfilling lives?

This year, two friends and I decided to give up video games,

Netflix, snacks, desserts, social media and a whole list of other things for 90 days. Was it crazy? Of course! Did we stumble? Yep!

It was a challenge, but it was a rewarding challenge. Because we weren't always on our phones, we spent more time with loved ones. Because we didn't binge on Netflix, we spent more time with God. Because we weren't always eating snacks and sweets, we became healthier, happier people.

Our God isn't about instant pleasures. He wants us to receive long term freedom from the things that, although may feel good in the moment, turn us into slaves in the long run.

What are you a slave to? What can't you give up? When was the last time you spent time with loved ones without glancing at your phone? Reflect on this and be honest with yourself. Then, pray to God to help set you free. What's impossible in our eyes is possible with God's love. David Bobis
