Important
New Archdiocese of Brisbane Volunteer Requirements
 Please note, the requirements have changed and the degree of working with children and vulnerable adults is not the only criterion. For example, those in a position of trust, such as Readers and Communion Ministers, and other ministries (Altar Server Coordinator, Altar Servers (over 18 years), Children's Liturgy Coordinator & Leader, Choir/Music Coordinator, Council Members, Groundsman/Gardener, Organists/Musicians with keys, RCIA Leader, Sacramental Preparation/Program Coordinators, Sacristan, Piety Store Convenor, and all those doing Pastoral Care Ministry) must now obtain a Blue Card and Police Check. Cleaner with keys and Counters need to have Police Check. For our parish – all 4 churches:

- All Volunteers need to be registered
- Blue Card and Police Check for certain roles
- Induction must be undertaken in ministry role and approval by Parish Priest before commencement on roster (some roles are by appointment by the Parish Priest only)
- Already hold a Blue Card, or Police Check - you will need to provide us with copies and have Blue Card linked
- Safeguarding Training – mandatory for all volunteers

Forms are available from the office please contact 3844 2744 and we can email them to you.

NEWSLETTER

13th Sunday in Ordinary Time (Year B)
1st July 2018

Dear Parishioners, below is a message from Archbishop Mark Coleridge Pope Francis has laid out a clear message for the Church when it comes to the crucial question of safeguarding.

He puts it this way: "The Church loves all her children like a loving mother, but she protects with a special affection those who are smallest and defenceless. Now the duty that Christ himself entrusted to the Church is exactly this, the Church is especially vigilant in protecting children and vulnerable adults."

These words drive our Safeguarding Strategy in the Archdiocese of Brisbane. This strategy sets our approach and our priorities around safeguarding until 2020. The strategy applies to all church personnel including bishops, clergy, religious, employees, contractors and volunteers across all parishes, ministries, agencies and services. It's for everyone.

Our safeguarding commitment is this:

The Archdiocese of Brisbane holds that children and vulnerable adults are a gift from God with an intrinsic right to dignity of life, respect and protection from harm. The Archdiocese does not tolerate abuse by Church personnel or others involved in its ministries and services.

Therefore, the Archdiocese of Brisbane is committed to:

- Protecting all involved in our ministries and services from abuse;
- Promoting the wellbeing and best interests of children and vulnerable adults in the delivery of all ministries and services; and
- Responding effectively where disclosure, suspicion or allegations of abuse arise.

The safeguarding commitment is underpinned by our three Ps of safeguarding. We want safe PEOPLE, safe PRACTICES and safe PLACES.

- Having safe people means that Church personnel are appropriately selected, recruited and trained in safeguarding and that they accept their safeguarding obligations.
- Having safe practices means applying safeguards to all Archdiocesan activities, ministries and services to prevent abuse.
- And, having safe places involves applying safeguards to all properties and locations in which Archdiocesan activities, ministries and services are conducted to minimise the risks of abuse occurring.

This Archdiocese has established an Office of Safeguarding Services. And the Archdiocese works with the Australian Catholic Church's new Catholic Professional Standards body. This body, set up following the Royal Commission into Institutional Responses to Child Sexual Abuse, has established National Catholic Safeguarding Standards.

Last Sunday we farewelled Rika and Albert

These standards take into account the guidance of the Royal Commission and the Australian Human Rights Commission. They form an important basis for how our Archdiocese approaches safeguarding.

Our Safeguarding Strategy has a foundation principle – 'safeguarding is everyone's responsibility'.

This principle serves as the foundation for safeguarding functions within the Archdiocese. It calls all Archdiocesan church personnel, regardless of their position, to embrace safeguarding and their duty to care for and protect others from abuse, especially children and vulnerable adults.

Pope Francis has called for zero tolerance when it comes to sexual abuse. He's right. We must do all we can to safeguard our smallest and our most defenceless. Our Archdiocesan Safeguarding Strategy aims to do that.

With your help, we can achieve this.

Safeguarding is everyone's responsibility.

Gospel

Mark 5:21-43

When Jesus had crossed in the boat to the other side, a large crowd gathered round him and he stayed by the lakeside. Then one of the synagogue officials came up, Jairus by name, and seeing him, fell at his feet and pleaded with him earnestly, saying, 'My little daughter is desperately sick. Do come and lay your hands on her to make her better and save her life.' Jesus went with him and a large crowd followed him; they were pressing all round him.

Now there was a woman who had suffered from a haemorrhage for twelve years; after long and painful treatment under various doctors, she spent all she had without being any the better for it, in fact, she was getting worse. She had heard about Jesus, and she came up behind him through the crowd and touched his cloak. 'If I can touch even his clothes,' she had told herself 'I shall be well again.' And the source of the bleeding dried up instantly, and she felt in herself that she was cured of her complaint. Immediately aware that power had gone out from him, Jesus turned round in the crowd and said, 'Who touched my clothes?' His disciples said to him, 'You see how the crowd is pressing round you and yet you say, "Who touched me?"' But he continued to look all round to see who had done it. Then the woman came forward, frightened and trembling because she knew what had happened to her, and she fell at his feet and told him the whole truth. 'My daughter,' he said 'your faith has restored you to health; go in peace and be free from your complaint.'

While he was still speaking some people arrived from the house of the synagogue official to say, 'Your daughter is dead: why put the Master to any further trouble?' But Jesus had overheard this remark of theirs and he said to the official, 'Do not be afraid; only have faith.' And he allowed no one to go with him except Peter and James and John the brother of James. So they came to the official's house and Jesus noticed all the commotion, with people weeping and wailing unrestrainedly. He went in and said to them, 'Why all this commotion and crying? The child is not dead, but asleep.' But they laughed at him. So he turned them all out and, taking with him the child's father and mother and his own companions, he went into the place where the child lay. And taking the child by the hand he said to her, 'Talitha, kumi!' which means, 'Little girl, I tell you to get up.' The little girl got up at once and began to walk about, for she was twelve years old. At this they were overcome with astonishment, and he ordered them strictly not to let anyone know about it, and told them to give her something to eat.

Communion Antiphon

2 Minute Catechism

Christ's Baptism

1223 All the Old Covenant prefigurations find their fulfilment in Christ Jesus. He begins his public life after having himself baptized by St. John the Baptist in the Jordan.¹⁷ After his resurrection Christ gives this mission to his apostles: "Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you."¹⁸

1224 Our Lord voluntarily submitted himself to the baptism of St. John, intended for sinners, in order to "fulfil all righteousness."¹⁹ Jesus' gesture is a manifestation of his self-emptying.²⁰ The Spirit who had hovered over the waters of the first creation descended then on the Christ as a prelude of the new creation, and the Father revealed Jesus as his "beloved Son."²¹

1225 In his Passover Christ opened to all men the fountain of Baptism. He had already spoken of his Passion, which he was about to suffer in Jerusalem, as a "Baptism" with which he had to be baptized.²² The blood and water that flowed from the pierced side of the crucified Jesus are types of Baptism and the Eucharist, the sacraments of new life.²³ From then on, it is possible "to be born of water and the Spirit"²⁴ in order to enter the Kingdom of God.

See where you are baptized; see where Baptism comes from, if not from the cross of Christ, from his death. There is the whole mystery: he died for you. In him you are redeemed, in him you are saved.²⁵
