27th Sunday in Ordinary Time
 6 October 2019 - Year C

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

This Sunday's Gospel begins with the apostles asking Jesus: "Increase our faith!" As a reply Jesus says: "If you had faith the size of a mustard seed you could say to this sycamore tree, 'Be rooted up, and be planted in the sea,' and it would obey you."
 What did Jesus mean when he said to His disciples that our faith can move trees and mountains as well?

The term "mountain remover" was used for someone who could solve great problems and difficulties. Don't we often encounter challenges and difficulties which seem beyond our power to handle? What appears impossible to human power is possible to those who believe in God's power. Faith is a gift freely given by God to help us know God personally, to understand his truth, and to live in the power of his love. God expects more from us than we can simply do by ourselves. That is why Jesus gives us the gift and power of the Holy Spirit who helps us to grow strong in faith, persevere in hope, and endure in love.

Faith in God is the key for removing obstacles and difficulties which keep us from doing his will. We belong to God and our lives are no longer our own. Our joy and privilege are to follow the Lord Jesus and to serve in the power of his love and goodness. The Lord Jesus is ever ready to work in and through us by his Spirit for his glory.

For our faith to be effective it must be linked with trust and with obedience - an active submission to God and a willingness to do whatever he commands.

God bless you and have great weekend,
 Fr. Joshy Parappully OFM Cap

READINGS AT MASS

Entrance Antiphon Cf. Est 4: 17

Within your will, O Lord, all things are established, and there is none that can resist your will. For you have made all things, the heaven and the earth, and all that is held within the circle of heaven; you are the Lord of all.

First reading Habakkuk 1:2-3,2:2-4

How long, O Lord, am I to cry for help while you will not listen; to cry 'Oppression!' in your ear and you will not save? Why do you set injustice before me, why do you look on where there is tyranny? Outrage and violence, this is all I see, all is contention, and discord flourishes. Then the Lord answered and said, 'Write the vision down, inscribe it on tablets to be easily read, since this vision is for its own time only; eager for its own fulfilment, it does not deceive; if it comes slowly, wait, for come it will, without fail. See how he flags, he whose soul is not at rights, but the upright man will live by his faithfulness.'

Responsorial Psalm Psalm 94(95):1-2,6-9

If today you hear his voice, harden not your hearts.

Come, ring out our joy to the Lord; hail the rock who saves us. Let us come before him, giving thanks, with songs let us hail the Lord. R/ Come in; let us bow and bend low; let us kneel before the God who made us: for he is our God and we the people who belong to his pasture, the flock that is led by his hand. R/ O that today you would listen to his voice! 'Harden not your hearts as at Meribah, as on that day at Massah in the desert when your fathers put me to the test; when they tried me, though they saw my work.' R/

Second reading 2 Timothy 1:6-8,13-14

I am reminding you to fan into a flame the gift that God gave you when I laid my hands on you. God's gift was not a spirit of timidity, but the Spirit of power, and love, and self-control. So you are never to be ashamed of witnessing to the Lord, or ashamed of me for being his prisoner; but with me, bear the hardships for the sake of the Good News, relying on the power of God. Keep as your pattern the sound teaching you have heard from me, in the faith and love that are in Christ Jesus. You have been trusted to look after something precious; guard it with the help of the Holy Spirit who lives in us.

Gospel Acclamation 1 Pet 1:25

Alleluia, alleluia!
 The word of the Lord stands for ever; it is the word given to you, the Good News. Alleluia!

Gospel Luke 17:5-9

The apostles said to the Lord, 'Increase our faith.' The Lord replied, 'Were your faith the size of a mustard seed you could say to this mulberry tree, "Be uprooted and planted in the sea," and it would obey you. "Which of you, with a servant ploughing or minding sheep, would say to him when he returned from the fields, "Come and have your meal immediately"? Would he not be more likely to say, "Get my supper laid; make yourself tidy and wait on me while I eat and drink. You can eat and drink yourself afterwards"? Must he be grateful to the servant for doing what he was told? So with you: when you have done all you have been told to do, say, "We are merely servants: we have done no more than our duty."' "

Communion Antiphon Lam 3: 25

The Lord is good to those who hope in him, to the soul that seeks him.

Next Sunday's readings: 1st reading: 2Kg 5: 14-17; 2nd reading: 2 Tim 2: 8-13; Gospel: Lk 17: 11-19

Youth Corner

The weekend was all about Jesus

Over the weekend, the RYM team and our youth members attended Ignite Youth Conference 2019! What a wonderful conference! We all had the best time learning more about the Catholic faith and deepening our relationship with the Lord.

We bonded so much as a team during the conference and were able to get to know each other better. We deepened our connection with one another by attending workshops and keynotes together, doing praise and worship together, adoring the Lord alongside one another, participating in activities such as badge making, playing games and sharing meals together. During the breaks we would regroup, discuss what we learnt and work out which workshop to attend next.

A big THANK YOU to the RYM leadership team who did an amazing job, and for making all this possible and showing us that in God we can do all things. It's all about JESUS! They took really good care of the children, made sure the children had fun, connected with God and each other and made sure that we got to and from the conference safely.

Overall, Ignite Youth Conference was such a great time for all of us, to grow in fellowship with one another while learning more about the richness of our faith.

See you all & your parents at the next Awaken Praise and Worship - 12th Oct, St Francis Hall, West End 6pm !!!
