Fourth Sunday of Easter
 3 May 2020 - Year A

Dear Brothers and Sisters
 This weekend the church celebrates as Good Shepherd Sunday. The gospel for this Sunday says, "I am the good shepherd; the good shepherd is the one who lays down his life for his sheep". In the responsorial psalm we pray the Lord is my Shepherd there is nothing I shall want. He is the true Shepherd and the guardian of our souls who guide and protect us from all dangers. This good shepherd Sunday is also known as Vocation Sunday to pray for vocations for priesthood and religious life to have pastors after the model of Jesus Christ the good Shepherd to lead the people of God.
 A sheep needs a shepherd. a good shepherd leads sheep from place to place for their own good. Left on their own they stand around staring at each other. The shepherd knows them, where to take them for more food and knows how to force them to move on, sheep need a shepherd. Jesus announces himself not merely as a shepherd but as the Good Shepherd who lays down his life for his sheep, he is the one whom we can trust, because he is the one Shepherd who is not a sheep himself but the gate for the sheep, the truth and the life and saves us from all dangers. He did lay down his own life for his sheep and saved us all from eternal damnation and continue to feed and protect us with his own body and blood in the Holy Eucharist. "Lord Jesus, you always lead me in the way of true peace and safety. May I never doubt your care nor stray from your ways. Keep me safe in the shelter of your presence."
 Fr. Joshy Parappully OFM Cap Parish Priest

MESSAGE OF HIS HOLINESS POPE FRANCIS
 "The Lord's call is not an intrusion of God in our freedom; it is not a "cage" or a burden to be borne. On the contrary, it is the loving initiative whereby God encounters us and invites us to be part of a great undertaking. He opens before our eyes the horizon of a greater sea and an abundant catch."
And yet, there can be no greater joy than to risk one's life for the Lord! I would like to say this especially to you, the young. Do not be deaf to the Lord's call. If he calls you to follow this path, do not pull your oars into the boat, but trust him. Do not yield to fear, which paralyzes us before the great heights to which the Lord points us. Always remember that to those who leave their nets and boat behind, and follow him, the Lord promises the joy of a new life that can fill our hearts and enliven our journey.....we should always look to Mary. Also in the story of this young woman, vocation was both a promise and a risk. Her mission was not easy, yet she did not allow fear to prevail. "It was the 'yes' of someone prepared to be committed, someone willing to take a risk, ready to stake everything she had, with no more security ...cont'd

READINGS AT MASS

Entrance Antiphon Cf. Ps 32: 5-6

The merciful love of the Lord fills the earth; by the word of the Lord the heavens were made, alleluia.

First reading Acts 2:14,36-41

On the day of Pentecost Peter stood up with the Eleven and addressed the crowd in a loud voice: 'The whole House of Israel can be certain that God has made this Jesus whom you crucified both Lord and Christ.'

Hearing this, they were cut to the heart and said to Peter and the apostles, 'What must we do, brothers?' 'You must repent,' Peter answered 'and every one of you must be baptised in the name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of your sins, and you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit. The promise that was made is for you and your children, and for all those who are far away, for all those whom the Lord our God will call to himself.' He spoke to them for a long time using many arguments, and he urged them, 'Save yourselves from this perverse generation.' They were convinced by his arguments, and they accepted what he said and were baptised. That very day about three thousand were added to their number.

Responsorial Psalm Psalm 22 1-6

The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want.

The Lord is my shepherd;
there is nothing I shall want.
Fresh and green are the pastures
where he gives me repose.
Near restful waters he leads me,
to revive my drooping spirit. R/
He guides me along the right path;
he is true to his name.
If I should walk in the valley of darkness
no evil would I fear.
You are there with your crook and your staff;
with these you give me comfort. R/
You have prepared a banquet for me
in the sight of my foes.
My head you have anointed with oil;
my cup is overflowing. R/
Surely goodness and kindness shall follow me
all the days of my life.
In the Lord's own house shall I dwell
for ever and ever. R/

Second reading 1 Peter 2:20-25

The merit, in the sight of God, is in bearing punishment patiently when you are punished after doing your duty.

This, in fact, is what you were called to do, because Christ suffered for you and left an example for you to follow the way he took. He had not done anything wrong, and there had been no perjury in his mouth. He was insulted and did not retaliate with insults; when he was tortured he made no threats but he put his trust in the righteous judge. He was bearing our faults in his own body on the cross, so that we might die to our faults and live for holiness; through his wounds you have been healed. You had gone astray like sheep but now you have come back to the shepherd and guardian of your souls.

Gospel Acclamation John 10:14

Alleluia, alleluia!

I am the good shepherd, says the Lord;
I know my sheep, and mine know me.

Alleluia!

Gospel John 10:1-10

Jesus said:

'I tell you most solemnly, anyone who does not enter the sheepfold through the gate, but gets in some other way is a thief and a brigand. The one who enters through the gate is the shepherd of the flock; the gatekeeper lets him in, the sheep hear his voice, one by one he calls his own sheep and leads them out. When he has brought out his flock, he goes ahead of them, and the sheep follow because they know his voice. They never follow a stranger but run away from him: they do not recognise the voice of strangers.'

Jesus told them this parable but they failed to understand what he meant by telling it to them.

So Jesus spoke to them again:

'I tell you most solemnly,
I am the gate of the sheepfold.
All others who have come
are thieves and brigands;
but the sheep took no notice of them.

I am the gate.
Anyone who enters through me will be safe:

he will go freely in and out
and be sure of finding pasture.
The thief comes
only to steal and kill and destroy.

I have come
so that they may have life and have it to the full.'

Communion Antiphon

The Good Shepherd has risen,
who laid down his life for his sheep
and willingly died for his flock, alleluia.

2 Minute Catechism

Every year, on the Fourth Sunday of Easter, the Church's liturgy presents to us the figure of Jesus, the "Good Shepherd." The Gospel reading is taken from the tenth chapter of Saint John's Gospel. This coming Sunday, the passage is John 10: 11-18, Where Jesus identifies Himself as the "good shepherd who lays down His life for the sheep." In the early Church, the figure of Christ as the Good Shepherd was a prominent image. This image is seen often in early Christian art. Clearly, it had great meaning for the early Christians since it often appeared, painted or sculpted, in the catacombs and on sarcophagi and baptismal fonts. Clearly, our ancestors in the Christian faith were moved by this image of Jesus. These effigies by the first generations of Christians show us that the image of Christ as the Good Shepherd was an image of faith that touched their hearts in a special way. Already in the Old Testament, the figure of the shepherd was an image for God. The prophets Isaiah, Jeremiah, and Ezekiel spoke of God as the shepherd of the people of Israel. The people were referred to as the Lord's flock. There is a particularly moving reflection on God as shepherd of His people in the famous Psalm 23 which begins: The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want. In this beautiful psalm, the author writes that he lacks nothing as long as the shepherd is with him. He speaks of letting God, his shepherd, lead him to safe pastures: He makes me lie down in green pastures. He leads me beside still waters; He restores my soul. He leads me in paths of righteousness for His name's sake. By virtue of Baptism, every Christian is called to be "a good shepherd" in the environment where he or she lives: in the family, at work, in the community. There are many opportunities to be "good shepherds" in society, through works of mercy and compassion. And there is the mission of evangelization: sharing the Gospel with those who do not belong to the sheepfold of the Church.

Pastoral Care Update

Last week we prepared white crosses, poppies and candles for everyone to be lit at 6am. We had a little Anzac ceremony with the vulnerable elderly to remember all the soldiers who had sacrificed and died in war. In Dutton Park Housing there were 20 residents and they all came out on their doorsteps to show solidarity with all, raised their lit candles and paused for 1 minute silence "Lest we forget" We had given away a little treat of freshly baked Anzac cookies, chocolate cake and soft drinks attached with it is a little recipe to cheer them up in moments of isolation and loneliness.

Pandemic of Love Recipe
MIX TOGETHER EQUAL PARTS OF:

- Friendliness - Helpfulness
- Laughter - Great sense of humour
- Tender Loving Care

- Sprinkle as much as you can with Virus of Pandemic love - SOCIAL DISTANCING must be observed.

Enjoy this treat from a friend and it is highly recommended to spread the virus act of love and kindness to our neighbours now and always.

I think in the midst of this global pandemic, looking after people who are at their vulnerable, especially the elderly, is the most important thing anyone can do. A big thank you to our volunteer bakers and all who are helping in this ministry.

Thank you and have a wonderful day.

PENTECOST PILGRIMAGE

Hosted by Catholic Archdiocese of Sydney.

When the disciples left Jerusalem some might enquire 'what did they do?' 'where did they go?'

Our pilgrimage to the upper room in many ways will resemble the disciples'.

Whether we are in a real pilgrimage or a virtual pilgrimage what's important is not so much the 'where' and the 'how' it's about 'who'.

Our time together on this pilgrimage is about to 'who' we are moving towards, with each step and each talk. Just as the disciples did, we will encounter our risen Jesus on our pilgrimage many times before we arrive in the upper room for Pentecost.

The Church has a great history and love of pilgrimages. As early as Saint Augustine of Hippo (354-430) we find in his writings reference to 'pilgrimage' which he describes as a Christian spiritual journey, a kind of self-imposed exile of the pilgrim in which he searches for God's Truth in his wanderings while visiting the holy shrines of the Faith.

Register NOW and get unlimited access to talks provided twice per week. <https://www.pentecostpilgrimage.com/> Is the Holy Spirit calling you to PENTECOST PILGRIMAGE. It will be a personal and communal world-wide shared journey of discovery along ways that lead us to the upper room. The pilgrimage is pre-recorded and presentations are 100% on-demand each week as an accompaniment to the journey of encounter.

This will take place every week for six weeks. Ask the Holy Spirit who you can invite to share this journey, even if it's the final week, they will receive. Presentations are between 15-25 mins and along the journey we will feature music from Catholic performers. Certain presenters will offer some live virtual-booth sessions at specific times.

Listen on the go—whether you're in the car or exercising, you have access to each drop of talks

Works for parents who can't watch but can participate while doing chores and attending to others.

20+ Talks and workshops from some of the most prominent holy spirit theologians and evangelists in the Catholic world, all in one place and free.

A BIG, BIG THANKYOU
