Church's Social Mission

 During the Covid-19 Pandemic In this moment of social isolation, there are many who are vulnerable and struggling to cope with a loss of employment, income or social support. This document serves as a starting point providing information to enable support for those affected by the pandemic and the restrictions put in place. It covers a list of entities, the services they provide, and who these services are relevant to. For more information, contact Peter Arndt (Executive Officer, Catholic Justice and Peace Commission Brisbane) on cjpc@bne.catholic.net.au The paragraph above is the introduction to this 17 page document that lists a wide array of social and pastoral care services provided by churches, governments and community groups and organisations. Even after the pandemic this document will prove to be an invaluable resource. Click here for the PDF.

Salt + Light Media

 Established 13 years ago in Canada, has produced some 40 documentaries or TV series, has launched a satellite radio program, magazine and numerous web-based initiatives including a blog and live stream that are viewed daily by people throughout the world. Many videos are available for free, eg Faith in a Time of Crisis <https://saltandlighttv.org/blogfeed/getpost.php?id=97932>; Special Interview with Bishop Robert Reed <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=IF5tudIaN7w&feature=youtu.be> or this wonderful and amusing interview with comedian, interviewer and host Stephen Colbert. Other video series are available to purchase or hire. Salt + Light Media has just published a new series called Creation. This is based on Pope Francis' encyclical On Care of Our Common Home (Laudato 'si). This six part series is an absolute joy to behold and the production quality is as good as any first class documentary series on TV. Sometimes the examples and case studies are from the US, eg the Ogalala Aquifer, however it is a simple exercise to compare these to similar problems and challenges here and in other parts of the world. To accompany the videos Salt + Light Media have generously published a 40 page guide with quotes, reflection and discussion questions. Click here <https://saltandlighttv.org/creation/?muid=2> for more information, video samples and the guide.

THE MOST HOLY TRINITY SUNDAY
 7 June 2020 - Year A

Dear Brothers and Sisters,
 Today we celebrate the great feast of Holy Trinity, the unity of the Father, Son and Holy Spirit. On this feast day the church invites us to reflect on the important mystery of our faith that our God is one in three persons. St. Cyril, the teacher of the Slavs, tried to explain the Mystery of the Most Holy Trinity using the sun as an example. He said, "God the Father is that blazing sun. God the Son is its light and God the Holy Spirit is its heat — but there is only one sun. St. John Maria Vianney explains Holy Trinity using lighted candles and roses on the altar and water in the cruets. "The flame has colour, warmth and shape. But these are expressions of one flame. Similarly, the rose has colour, fragrance and shape. But these are expressions of one reality, namely, rose. Water, steam, and ice are three distinct expressions of one reality. In the same way one God revealed Himself to us as Father, Son and the Holy Spirit."

In our practice of Christian Life, the Trinity is remembered often in prayer. Each time we make the sign of the cross, as we did at the beginning of this celebration, we say: "In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit." The best way to understand Holy Trinity is love. Father, Son and Holy Spirit though they are three persons in love they are one in unity, they are one in communication, and they are one in sharing. St. John teaches us God is Love. Love always creative, mutual sharing. God the father gives his only son Jesus Christ shares the spirit of God. "May the Lord Jesus put his hands on our eyes also, for then we too shall begin to look not at what is seen, but at what is not seen. May he open the eyes that are concerned not with the present, but with what is yet to come, may he unseal the heart's vision, that we may gaze on God in the Spirit, through the same Lord, Jesus Christ, whose glory and power will endure throughout the unending succession of ages." (Prayer of Origin, 185-254 AD)

Thank You and God bless,

READINGS AT MASS

Entrance Antiphon

Blest be God the Father,
and the Only Begotten Son of God,
and also the Holy Spirit,
for he has shown us his merciful love.

First reading Exodus 34:4-6,8-9

With the two tablets of stone in his hands, Moses went up the mountain of Sinai in the early morning as the Lord had commanded him. And the Lord descended in the form of a cloud, and Moses stood with him there.

He called on the name of the Lord. The Lord passed before him and proclaimed, 'The Lord, a God of tenderness and compassion, slow to anger rich in kindness and faithfulness.' And Moses bowed down to the ground at once and worshipped. 'If I have indeed won your favour, Lord,' he said 'let my Lord come with us, I beg. True, they are a headstrong people, but forgive us our faults and our sins, and adopt us as your heritage.'

Responsorial Psalm Daniel 3:52-56

To you glory and praise for evermore.
You are blest, Lord God of our fathers.
To you glory and praise for evermore.
Blest your glorious holy name.
To you glory and praise for evermore.
You are blest in the temple of your glory.
To you glory and praise for evermore.
You are blest on the throne of your kingdom.
To you glory and praise for evermore.
You are blest who gaze into the depths.
To you glory and praise for evermore.
You are blest in the firmament of heaven.
To you glory and praise for evermore.

Second reading 2 Corinthians 13:11-13

Brothers, we wish you happiness; try to grow perfect; help one another. Be united; live in peace, and the God of love and peace will be with you.

Greet one another with the holy kiss. All the saints send you greetings.

The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you all.

Gospel Acclamation cf Revelation 1:8

Alleluia, alleluia!
Glory to the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit:
to God who is, who was, and who is to come.
Alleluia!

Gospel John 3:16-18

Jesus said to Nicodemus:
'God loved the world so much that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him may not be lost but may have eternal life.
For God sent his Son into the world not to condemn the world, but so that through him the world might be saved. No one who believes in him will be condemned; but whoever refuses to believe is condemned already, because he has refused to believe in the name of God's only Son.'

Communion Antiphon Gal 4: 6

Since you are children of God,
God has sent into your hearts the Spirit of his Son,
the Spirit who cries out: Abba, Father.

Next Sunday's readings: 1st reading: Deut 8: 2-3, 14-16;
2nd reading: 1Cor 10: 16-17; Gospel: Jn 6: 51-58

2 Minute Catechism

The Holy Trinity by Rev. William G. Most

Perhaps the deepest, the most profound of all mysteries is the mystery of the Trinity. The Church teaches us that although there is only one God, yet, somehow, there are three Persons in God. The Father is God, the Son is God, the Holy Spirit is God, yet we do not speak of three Gods, but only one God. They have the same nature, substance, and being.

We came to know this immense mystery because Christ revealed it to us. Just before ascending He told them: "Go teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit" (Matthew 28:19). We know that these Three are not just different ways of looking at one person. For at the Last Supper, Jesus told us: "I came forth from the Father." So He is different from the Father. But He also promised: "If I go, I will send Him [the Paraclete] to you. . . . He will guide you to all truth" (John 16:28, 7, 13). So the Holy Spirit is also different.

Even though the Three Persons are One God, yet they are distinct: for the Father has no origin, He came from no one. But the Son is begotten, He comes from the Father alone. The Holy Spirit comes or proceeds from both the Father and the Son. These different relations of origin tell us there are three distinct Persons, who have one and the same divine nature.

Even though everything the Three Persons do outside the Divine nature is done by all Three, yet it is suitable that we attribute some works specially to one or the other Person. So we speak of the Father especially as the power of creation, of the Son as the wisdom of the Father, of the Holy Spirit as goodness and sanctification.

The two doctrines of the Trinity and the Incarnation are the foundation of Christian life and worship. By becoming man, God the Son offered us a share in the inner life of the Trinity. By grace, we are brought into the perfect communion of life and love which is God, Father, Son and Holy Spirit. This sharing in the life of the Trinity is meant to culminate in heaven, where we will see the three Persons face to face, united to them in unspeakable love.

Walking Together with Solidarity

This poor man called, and the Lord heard him;
he saved him out of all his troubles...

The righteous cry out, and the Lord hears them;
he delivers them from all their troubles.

Pastoral Care Update

Last week and this week it has been very challenging journey but at the same time felt comforted knowing that the Holy Spirit is continuously working in us, through us and through the people we served.

God is Love, St. John tells us and as we celebrate the three-fold expression of this love on the feast of the Most Holy Trinity-the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. The same God is calling us to a deeper relationship with each of this Persons. God our Father never forgets us and is always mindful of our own welfare. Jesus is God's love who become one with us on our journey. The Holy Spirit brings us the gifts to heal our wounds and bring us the peace that the world cannot give. The Spirit give us the courage to live as Jesus lived- ready to reach out with generosity wherever and whenever we find a need. Every situation in life is temporary. In the midst of Covid-19 Pandemic crisis nothing works faster or is more dependable to bring your mind, body and spirit back in balance. One day we feel good, in the next day it feels too hard. The Coronavirus challenge has made us realize how valuable life is to appreciate the good times and thank God for every blessings. So when life is good, make sure you enjoy and receive it fully. And when life is not so good, remember that it will not last forever and better days are on the way. We can let the Spirit express our deepest feelings and desires when we come to pray. Perhaps this week we could devote a time of prayer and pay more attention to the way we make the sign of the Cross as a way of showing our love and respect for this Trinity of Love.

Attached photo of the thank you card received that I would like to share with you from one among the many Elderly that we are helping during lockdown who wish to express her love and appreciation. She was so happy and said: 'You bring not only food for the body. You also feed the soul.' (this lady is not even a Catholic but with a beautiful soul). Thank You and God Bless You.

Kind regards,
Sr. Salvacion, sfi
